

Epic-Races has teamed up with Gravel Worlds to bring two free entries into Gravel Worlds 2019. One male and one female has the chance to win these free entries. To qualify for this, you must finish in both of the 2018 Carolina Gravel Series races. The winner will be the racer that completes both of these races in the shortest amount of time. Travel and lodging will not be included in this competition, you will have to cover this on your own.
